CASE No. 25-61018
HUNTINGTON NATIONAL BANK
vs.
M/Y SOMETHING ABOUT MERI.,

By virtue of the Order Approving Report dated February 2, 2026 [Doc #249] motion for Interlocutory Sale issued by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, NOTICE is hereby given that I will sell by public auction for cashiers or certified funds check ONLY (with the exception of bids placed by Plaintiff), on April 21, 2026, at 12:00 PM at the Ft. Lauderdale Courthouse, 299 E. Broward Blvd. Ft. Lauderdale FL 33301 outside the main lobby near the steps on the 1st floor.

the following item FOR SALE:

M/Y SOMETHING ABOUT MERI, her engines, machinery, tackle, apparel, boats, furniture, equipment, rigging, freight, and all other necessary appurtenances, etc.,

The successful bidder shall be required to pay a deposit to the U.S. Marshal of ten percent (10%) of the sale's price at the time and place of sale. Thereafter, the successful bidder shall pay the remainder of the bid within seven (7) days unless objections to the sale are filed. Before being permitted to bid at sale, bidders shall present proof to the Marshal that they are able to comply with this requirement or otherwise will not be allowed to bid. All payments shall be made in certified, or cashier's check payable to USMS. Failure to pay the balance in accordance with the terms of the sale shall result in the forfeiture of the monies deposited and the vessel will be re-offered for sale. The sale of the vessel shall be "AS IS, WHERE IS" and free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, and pre-existing claims on the vessel whether recorded or otherwise. The sale shall comply with all laws of the U.S.A., including the citizenship requirements of Section 2 of the Shipping Act of 1916 as amended. The Court shall confirm the sale or sustain objections in conformance with Local Admiralty Rules.

Plaintiff, HUNTINGTON NATIONAL BANK, is permitted to credit bid all or part of any quantum of its claim.

Judgement Amount: $1,048,084.77
